THE VERCELLIAN

PRESIDENTS REPORT

Over the last two weeks we have seen images of our brothers and sisters in Texas and Louisiana suffering from the effects of Hurricane Harvey. Remembering our own devastation of Katrina, many parishes and individuals have risen to the challenge and provided aid to those in need. Let's continue to pray for all affected by this storm and continue our support as best we can.

During the course of the next four weeks, we have two opportunities to worship, fellowship, and pray in unity in keeping with our traditions as a Holy Name Union.

On Sunday, September 10, 2017 we will celebrate National Holy Name Sunday at St. Dominic with Mass at 8:00am followed by the placement of a Holy Name Placard and rededication of the Holy Name Shrine, the praying of the rosary, then fellowship during a reception. We ask that representatives from each parish Holy Name Society attend this event as we worship as a Holy Name Union in communion with the parishioners of St. Dominic. Our participation enmasse will help to raise awareness of the Holy Name Society and prayerfully will help to re-energize membership. Please arrive at the church not later than 7:45am as we will process into the church. Each parish is asked to bring their Holy Name banner with a staff and stand for placement near the shrine before mass starts.

We will also participate in the Greater New Orleans Rosary Congress during the week of October 7-13, 2017. This year's congress is hosted by St. Rita Catholic Church, 7100 Jefferson Hwy, Harahan LA 70123. We are planning to pray the radio rosary live from the Rosary Congress on Tuesday, October 10, 2017. We ask all Holy Name Society members who are able to arrive at St. Rita not later than 5:45pm. Our annual live broadcast praying of the radio rosary is paramount of our commitment as a Holy Name Union to continue the longest running daily broadcast of the rosary on the air. A summary of the Rosary Congress schedule is included in this newsletter for information purposes. While participation in these events is understandably a challenge and sacrifice for our members, let each of us prayerfully consider the crosses that we are called to bear as we both collectively and individually work to spread devotion to the Holy Name of Jesus.

Dear children! Today I am calling you to be people of prayer. Pray until prayer becomes a joy for you and a meeting with the Most High. He will transform your hearts and you will become people of love and peace. Do not forget, little children, that Satan is strong and wants to draw you away from prayer. You, do not forget that prayer is the secret key of meeting with God. That is why I am with you to lead you. Do not give up on prayer. Thank you for having responded to my call."

Have You Met the Holy Spirit? – How One Prayer Opened the Floodgates and Changed My Life

Alanna Burg 22/08/2017

In my journey back to the faith I had spent much time researching, listening, and learning about what it meant to be a daughter of God, what it meant to be a follower of Christ, and to clumsily pick up my cross and carry it. All of this seemed like an overwhelming task and something I didn't know if I would ever get right. God saw my struggles, and in that particular season of learning in faith, I went to a retreat coordinated by the ladies in my parish. The retreat was called Wrapped in the Spirit. That weekend I was introduced to the Holy Spirit.

Now, I had been baptized as an infant and confirmed as a teen, so the Holy Spirit had been with me and known me that whole time, but I had yet to understand what it meant to know the Third Person of the Trinity. As Professor Akers says in his lectures in his class on the Creed: "The Third Person is usually the forgotten one or the ignored one in the room." This is exactly how I was living my life. In ignorance of the Holy Spirit. Not in a way that was malicious... rather, I didn't even know what I didn't know. Thankfully in God's providence, I didn't have to live my life like that for long because He could tell I was searching for Him.

This is the prayer that I was introduced to in that retreat. One of the biggest surprises to me was that God had gifts to give us and all we had to do was ask!

"O Lord Jesus Christ Who, before ascending into heaven, did promise to send the Holy Spirit to finish Your work in the souls of Your Apostles and Disciples, deign to grant the same Holy Spirit to me that He may perfect in my soul the work of Your grace and Your love.

Grant me the Spirit of Wisdom, that I may despise the perishable things of this world and aspire only after the things that are eternal; the Spirit of Understanding, to enlighten my mind with the light of Your divine truth; the Spirit of Counsel, that I may ever choose the surest way of pleasing God and gaining heaven; the Spirit of Fortitude, that I may bear my cross with You and that I may overcome with courage all the obstacles that oppose my salvation; the Spirit of Knowledge, that I may know God and know myself and grow perfect in the science of the Saints; the Spirit of Piety, that I may find the service of God sweet and amiable; the Spirit of Fear, that I may be filled with a loving reverence towards God and may dread in any way to displease Him.

Mark me, dear Lord, with the sign of Your true disciples and animate me in all things with Your Spirit.

Amen."

This prayer for the gifts of the Holy Spirit changed my life and it led me to learning more about how the Holy Spirit works in our lives and the life of the Church. In his wonderful book, Theology and Sanity, Frank Sheed writes, "the Gifts of the Holy Ghost are habits residing in the soul in a state of grace, which the soul is capable of responding readily and fruitfully to these Actual Graces when God gives them. To use the illustration which is now traditional, the Gifts are like sails catching the wind of the Spirit." I had finally found the sail to hoist on the "small bark of my wit" as Dante would say.
