THE VERCELLIAN

I am, just as many of you are, deeply disturbed by the continuing effect of the corona virus upon our lives. More than anything else, I fail to understand the reluctance of the unvaccinated.

The reasons for that reluctance, I do not know, indeed we do not know, and I suspect that in many instances they do not themselves know.

What I do know, is that we must continue to pray for those who have fallen ill. We must pray for the continued health and safety of those who have been spared of illnesses, especially the children.

I would encourage everyone that I know to get vaccinated and that they do the same for those that they know. We have come a long way; we have a very long way to go.

In July, Father Charles Andrus of Blessed Sacrament/St. Joan of Arc, accepted the position of spiritual director of the archdiocesan Holy Name Society. Father Andrus was installed by Archbishop Aymond at that time, for which we are totally grateful.

Even though Father Andrus had some medical concerns at the time, he graciously accepted. Father Andrus is doing well, now, and we are grateful for your continued prayers.

We look forward to the work and activities that will continue to strengthen OUR UNION and OUR CHURCH.

It is unfortunate that we must postpone our working retreat, which was scheduled for August 14 and is now rescheduled for August 28. To me, however, it just means that the retreat will just be better.

In addition to the scheduling problems experience at the University, our facilitator, Dr. Reginald Parquet was forced to undergo surgery a week before the date of the retreat. Along with all our prayers Dr Parquet is doing quite well and should be able to facilitate at the retreat.

Please keep Archbishop Aymond and all our priests in your prayers.

Let us pray that all of us and especially our families and loved ones, our elected and selected leaders and all our Church, stay well, get vaccinated and practice good safety.

Yours in Christ
 Benny G. Harris

National Holy Name Convention in 2021

Greetings in The Holy Name of Jesus!! I am elated to report that we have an agreement with the Omni Royal Orleans to host our national Holy Name convention next November 17-21, 2021.

We have a good framework in place to assure that we have a spiritual and financial success, but we need the full cooperation and assistance of all our diocesan units and members. We will need volunteers for our hospitality and other committees as the convention draws near.

But our most immediate need is to obtain funding through the sale of ads for our convention souvenir booklet.

For past conventions we have secured ads from our diocesan parishes, as well as various parish organizations and businesses within our parishes. Ad rates are as follows:

Full page $150; half page $90;

1/8 page $40; 3 line memorial $20 ;

2 line sponsor $15.

PLEASE BE AWARE THAT IF YOU ARE PLANNING ON BOOKING A ROOM FOR THE CONVENTION, ROOM NIGHTS ARE GETTING LOW. PLEASE BOOK YOUR ROOM NOW!!

Best regards in the Holy Name of Jesus !!

Don't Just Go To Mass – Assist

by Craig Taffaro <https://thosecatholicmen.com/articles/dont-just-go-to-mass-assist/>

One may hear of the need to prepare for Holy Communion, but wonder how. Besides the obvious — be in a state of grace — or the many beautiful prayers written to help prepare a soul for Communion, one should study the Mass. Holy Mass contains within it the means for proper preparation and efficacious reception of its end, the Eucharist. The faithful are encouraged to assist — not merely attend — Mass that they may prepare well for Communion and offer fitting thanksgiving. A look at Mass parts reveals the great wisdom of Holy Mother Church and the love of God who became man so that He could offer His body as food.

The Mass can be divided into parts that each encourage different movements in the soul: from the Entrance Antiphon to the Collect, contrition; from the Collect to the Profession of Faith, faith; in the Eucharistic Prayer, hope; at Communion, love; from the Communion Antiphon through the prayer after Communion, gratitude. (Or, for traditional Latin Mass goers: Introit to the Collects, contrition; Collects to Credo, faith; in the Canon, hope; at Communion, love; ablutions to the end, gratitude.) These are not strict boundaries, but suggestions to help one more actively participate, or assist, at Holy Mass and to receive the Eucharist with great effect. The hopeful man, for example, should receive nourishment in both the Liturgy of the Word and the Liturgy of the Eucharist.

If one is to receive nourishment through Mass, he must be attentive and intentional, not a passive observer. Mass attendance is not a spectator sport. The point in drawing attention to the parts of the Mass above and corresponding spiritual movements is to highlight the fact that the Mass is not haphazard — it is carefully constructed to prepare one for communion with his Creator. A man need not be advanced in learning to receive nourishment from the Eucharist, but he should learn the Mass that he may more fully enter into the mystery of faith.

BE WITH ME

I wish you could have been at Bethlehem.
 You could have held Me and kept Me warm.
 And I would have smiled at you.
 You probably would not have wanted to hand Me back to My mother.

I wish you could have been with us at Cana.
 My mother was there.
 I made some really fine wine, and
 We could have shared a cup together.

I wish you could have been at the Last Supper with Me,
 When I ordained men, My apostles, My priests, and
 We could have broken bread together, and
 Then you could have received Me, totally, in My Eucharist.

I wish you could have been at the foot of the Cross,
 With My mother and John, My priest.
 You could have tried to comfort me and
 I would have told you how much I love you.

I wish you could have been there on the mountain,
 When I ascended into Heaven.
 There I sent My priests, My apostles, to the world,
 And where they are now I am there in person.

I wish you could have been at the tomb
 That first Easter morn.
 When the stone moved,
 You would have been blown away by My Sonrise.
 But all those times are past,
 Gone now.

Still, I wish you will be with Me here, and
 I will be with you, in person.

I wish you could be with Me at My Mass,
 When My sacrifice is again presented to My Father.
 I am there in person in My priest.
 You can come, be with Me, and receive Me.
 This Holy Sacrifice of Mine
 Is not only time past.
 This time is now, and I am here in person.
 Be with Me.
